

Donald W. & Catherine G. Jurgemeyer Community Hero Award

Recognizes and celebrates the contributions of everyday local heroes — those who have performed life-saving measures, come to the aid of another or contributed to the safety, security and resiliency of our community.

Nominees must be either a professional or volunteer serving in Bartholomew County as a law enforcement official, firefighter, first responder or in the medical or healthcare field. The nominee will have exhibited heroism in his or her response to an emergency, on- or off-duty, or is involved in an ongoing activity in which a commitment is made to the safety, security and resiliency of the community through acts of courage and unselfishness in response to an identified need.

Person submitting application:

1. Name
2. Email
3. Phone
4. Relationship to Individual

Nominee:

5. Name
6. Email
7. Phone
8. Job Title

Documentation required:

9. Nomination letter describing the act of heroism or ongoing commitment to the safety, security, and resiliency of the community demonstrated by the nominee.

Donald W. & Catherine G. Jurgemeyer Community Leadership Project of the Year

Promotes and recognizes an organization or project in the community that exemplifies the Columbus community leadership values, including high aspirations, Welcoming Community, public-private partnerships, best value, collaboration, the value of good design, forward-thinking, lifelong learning and service to others, while addressing a pressing need or opportunity to improve the quality of life in Bartholomew County.

Nominees will be nonprofit organizations, volunteer groups, government entities, coalitions or businesses serving Bartholomew County.

Person submitting application:

1. Name
2. Email
3. Phone
4. Relationship/Role on the Project

Nominee:

5. Project Title
6. Provide a description of the community project including the following:
 - a. What community need has been addressed?
 - b. What impact has this project had on the local community?
 - c. How does this project and the individuals involved demonstrate adherence to the Community Leadership Values?